Cup with napkin holder - a cupkin

Sweating over lipstick on your favourite tea mug?

- Fret and sweat no more. Our cupkin will solve this problem for you. Continue using your favourite lipstick while drinking tea. Just move the napkin up along the cup to wipe your lips...

Broom combined with a dustpan

Having problems handling too many cleaning items when cleaning your house?

- The broom combined with a dustpan is helping you with not only brooming the floor but also with collecting the dust and residues at the same time.

Toaster passing jelly on your bread

Being lazy in the mornings?

- We can make a toaster that passes the jelly directly on your bread. The toaster holds a spatula with jelly above the toaster. When the toast jumps from the toaster it will move alongside the jelly and will be ready to eat. Want butter as well, just flip the spatula first.

Thanks for the cooperation!

Franceska, Carina and Maria came up with the ideas.

Special thanks goes to Maria for the drawings and Carinas hubby Kenneth who came up with the gloves and the scrape tree
